

I am very concerned that with the consolidation of our public media, that I as a citizen am not givin access local media. Localism is being snuffed out and controled by a handful of corparations. I urge the FCC to address this issue, that is the most pressing issue of our time.